

On the Web: www.sevenmileford.net or www.myspace.com/sevenmileford

Seven Mile Ford has emerged as Southwestern Virginia's hottest classic and contemporary country/rock cover band. Sporting a repertoire of radio-friendly and high energy original music in each live show, the band regularly tours major nightclub and festival venues throughout Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Members

David Breeden	Keyboards/Vocals	breeden@sevenmileford.net
David Bowles	Drums/Vocals	dbowles@sevenmileford.net
Daryl Huddleston	Bass Guitar/Vocals	daryl@sevenmileford.net
David Wirtanen	Guitar/Vocals	dwirtanen@sevenmileford.net
Christy Bowles	Lead Vocals/Booking	christyb@sevenmileford.net

Awards/In the News

Bristol Herald Courier – Entertainment Feature – November 1, 2007, “Band took name from incident near town of Seven Mile Ford,” by Tom Netherland at features@bristolnews.com

#3 charted Country/Christian radio hit entitled, “For Crying Out Loud,” written by Christy Bowles – recorded by Jeanie Kay Truesdale for BMI Nashville

The Roanoke Times – November 2004 – article on “For Crying Out Loud, Christy Bowles”

Equal Justice Magazine – Briefs Section – “Crying for Help – Country Crooning Paralegal finds therapy through music,” – Fall 2005

“Miracle Away,” written and recorded by Christy Bowles – aired annually in support of the St. Jude Miracle Network on WYYD 107.9 in Lynchburg and Roanoke, Virginia

Collaborations

Earl Thomas Conley, Carolyn Dawn Johnson, Cowboy Crush, Travis Tritt, Gary Allan, Sugarland, Hot Apple Pie, Jason Aldean, Diamond Rio, Jake Owen, Tim McGraw, The Warren Brothers, Big & Rich, Marty Stuart, Brian McComas, Joe Nichols, Tracy Lawrence, Craig Morgan, Ty Herndon, James Otto and many more!

For booking information – contact Christy Bowles at (540) 521-8500 or (540) 366-7892